HIKING HIGH

Upland Escapes has launched its brochure for 2007/08 offering walking holidays in France, Italy, Slovenia and Gran Canaria, based in traditional villages set in awe-inspiring landscapes. 2006 prices have been held for holidays in France in 2007 and Upland Escapes is giving away one free holiday with bookings of six people or more (conditions apply). The 2007 brochure also includes details of a new series of scheduled group departures—ideal for solo travellers or for anyone preferring not to drive a hire-car.
