

100 Autumn Breaks

Editor's pick

25 Walk the Majella Italy

The Majella is a stunning national park that gets remarkably few foreign tourists. In October the woods are ablaze with colour, the days clear and the tables weighed down by chestnuts – if you're there over the weekend of October 27-28 for the Sagra della Castagna (chestnut festival) you'll get to sample umpteen different recipes.

Upland Escapes organises walking holidays in the park, using their lovely B&B in the village of Decontra as a base.

● Three days cost £335 including car hire, 01367 851111, uplandescapes.com.